UNI offers a world-class university education, providing personalized experiences and creating a lifetime of opportunities. So come join us for the adventure, and take a class just for the fun of it!
An Overview of Computer Programming with Scratch

Scratch is a graphical programming language/learning environment that allows students to learn about computer programming and computational thinking without worrying about complicated syntax. Created at the MIT Media Lab, it is designed for students aged 8-18 but is used by programmers of a variety of age and experience levels. Participants will learn the basic elements of computer programming while using Scratch for interactive art, animated storytelling, and game development. No programming experience expected.

Instructor: Dr. Ben Saltzer, Associate Professor
Dates: Saturday, September 12, 19, 26 and October 3, 2015
Time: 10:00am to 12:00pm
Location: University of Northern Iowa, Wright Hall, Room 112
Cost: $40.00

The Book of Genesis: A Literary Historical Analysis

In this course, we will study one of the foundational works of western culture, the biblical book of Genesis. We will explore various scholarly theories about the book’s composition, its relationship to Mesopotamian and Egyptian literature, biblical literalism, and the (often overlooked) literary artistry of its authors and editors. To do so, we will gain a deeper and richer understanding of this masterpiece of world literature.

Instructor: John Burnight, Assistant Professor, Department of Philosophy and World Religions
Dates: Tuesday, October 6, 13, 20, 27, 2015
Time: 10:00am to 12:00pm
Location: Windcove, Western Home Communities
Cost: $40.00

Four Late Charlie Chaplin Masterpieces

Screening and discussion of four films:

Charles Spencer Chaplin (1889-1977) made around 80 films from 1914 to 1967, mostly comedies, but comedies with Chaplin’s unique style and approach. He was one of the first “action” film-makers, being responsible for writing, directing, starring in, and even scoring the later sound films. Born in London, he never became an American citizen, and in fact emigrated to Switzerland, where he lived for the last 25 years of his life, returning only to accept an honorary Oscar and in fact was not allowed to re-enter the country in 1952 after he left for the London opening of Limelight. He died at 88 of a heart attack in 1977.

Instructor: Dr. Scott Cawell, Emeritus Professor of the Department of Languages and Literatures
Dates: Thursday, October 8, 15, 22, 29, 2015
Time: 9:30am – 11:30am
Location: New Aldaya – Performing Art Center
Cost: $40.00

Joyful Movement and Health

Movement is important to leading a healthy lifestyle, including psychological health. In this class, students will learn about how to engage their senses and listen to their bodies, (b) utilize different components of movement, such as agility, flexibility, stability, and strength, and (c) reflect on finding ways to move in their body’s way. Additionally, there will be a focus on how movement assists with stress management and cognitive functioning. The class will include some movement, which can be adapted to meet individual needs (e.g., can be done from chairs).

Instructor: Jennifer Waldron, UNI Professor, School of Physical Education, and Leisure Studies
Dates: Tuesday, October 27, November 3, 10, 17
Time: 9:00 to 10:30
Location: Windcove Western Home
Cost: $40.00

Religion and Violence: Views from Several Faiths

Panel members from Christian, Jewish and Muslim faiths will discuss how their religions respond to theological and moral questions related to violence. Topics to be addressed include: the presence of violence in a divinely created world; whether God uses violence against injustice; whether and when war is justified; violence by the State; individual violence against others and against oneself, violence against nature.

Panel: Ms. David Cushing, Director of Adult Formation, Waterloo Catholic Parishes
The Rev. Joe Groenema, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Waterloo
The Rev. Susan Janzen, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Waterloo
Ms. Donna Kacar, Hajije Al-Nour Islamic Center, Waterloo
Ms. Erin Maidan, Sons of Jacob Synagogue, Waterloo
Facilitator: The Rev. Dr. Ruth Ratliff, Deacon, St. Luke’s Episcopal Church, Cedar Falls

Dates: Thursday, October 29, November 5, 12, 19
Time: 12:00 to 2:00
Location: Windcove Western Home
Cost: $40.00

Write a Christmas/Holiday Letter People Will Love to Read

We will look at examples of typical Christmas letters and then try out some techniques for writing more interesting letters instead. Participants will likely leave with a letter to share with friends and family.

Instructor: Kimberly Greene, adjunct, Department of Languages and Literatures
Dates: Monday, November 9, 16, 23
Time: 10:00 to 11:30
Location: Windcove Western Home
